

Economic Commission
for Africa

Public Lecture

Combating Corruption from its Roots: Targeting the Bribers and the Bribed

Speaker: H.E. Judge Iva Joly, Special Advisor to the Norwegian Government on Money Laundering and Recipient of the Transparency International Integrity Award

Chair: Madame Lalla Ben Barka, Deputy Executive Secretary, United Nations Economic Commission for Africa

Host: Governance and Public Administration Division (GPAD)

Venue: United Nations Conference Centre

Time: 10 am-12 pm

Date: April 9, 2008

As a campaigner for tougher international action against fraud involving political and economic leaders, H.E. Judge Iva Joly's efforts to fight corruption have won her international acclaim.

She has investigated high-profile cases, such as one involving the state-owned Credit Lyonnais Bank which incurred staggering losses of billions of dollars through mismanagement. For six years she was in charge of investigating a half a billion Euro scandal involving the French state-owned oil company Elf Aquitaine.

Non-UN staff, kindly confirm attendance by contacting Ms. Yeshimebet Araya, and registering your name and institution to facilitate entry into UNCC.

Tel: 011-544-3306
Email: yaraya@uneca.org

All are welcome. Refreshments will be served