

Economic Commission for Africa

Seminar on Water and Sanitation in SADC: Innovative Approaches for Resource Mobilization and Policy Implementation,
Lusaka, Zambia, 10 - 13 December 2008.

Servicing of the seminar: tasks allocation

Agenda item	Content of the agenda item to be covered	Staff servicing
Agenda items 1 -2	Opening session, Keynote address on the Africa Water Vision (AU-SARO), Election of the Bureau	Filakati, Atamelang, Tarek <sup>1</sup>
Agenda item 3 - 5	(1) "The SADC Regional Programme on Water Supply and Sanitation" (SADC Secretariat) (2) "Issues paper on water and sanitation in Southern Africa" (ECA-SA) (3) "Sustainable financial support for Water and Sanitation programmes, projects and policies in Southern Africa: Issues and challenges" (AWF-AfDB).	Jean Luc Mastaki, Mzwanele
Agenda item 6 (1) and (2)	Presentations on selected themes: (1) "Water supply and sanitation to household through NGOs and community initiatives to safeguard human health and environment: lessons from the Mvula (Mvula Trust) (2) "Improved sanitation facility, gender and education linkages: lessons from Southern Africa" (Plan International Malawi).	Jean Luc Mastaki, Tarek

<sup>1</sup> Tarek Sherif is the focal point for the WSAT seminar for the AU-SARO in Lilongwe.

Agenda item 6 : (3) and (4)	(3) “Issues and challenges on integrated Water and Sanitation in Southern Africa” (IWRM Centre –UNZA)  (4) “Indigenous Private Sector Development and Public-Private Partnerships in Water and Sanitation Services Provision” (UNICEF)	Mzwanele, Atamelang, Tarek
Group work (1)	Water and sanitation delivery and provision/Group work and presentation to the plenary	Mzwanele, Filakati, Group rapporteur
Group work (2)	Mechanism for sustainable resources mobilization for water and sanitation programmes in southern Africa./Group work and presentation to the plenary	Jean Luc Mastaki, Atamelang, Group rapporteur
Agenda item 7	Plenary presentation and adoption of the recommendations	Filakati, Tarek
Agenda item 8-9	AOB and closing remarks	Jean Luc, Filakati