9:00am - 10:15am PS 11-A: COLONIAL DISCONTINUITIES AND CONTINUITIES: WHO HAS THE RIGHT TO ACCESS AND OWN LAND IN AFRICA?

Location: Conference Room 2

Objectives of the Session:

1. Critically examine the enduring impact of colonial land governance systems on contemporary patterns of land access, ownership, and control across Africa.
2. Spotlight strategic opportunities to break away from colonial legacies and advance transformative, inclusive land governance models.
3. Inspire and drive the creation of forward-looking policy, legal, and institutional reforms that remove entrenched barriers to equitable land access and ownership for marginalized communities.
4. Strengthen Pan-African and global alliances committed to land governance grounded in indigenous knowledge, community stewardship, and ecological sustainability.

9:00am - 10:15am PS 12-A: OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES OF ADDRESSING HISTORICAL LAND INJUSTICES, HERITAGE RESTITUTION AND REPARATIONS FOR AFRICANS

Location: Conference Room 2

10:15am Objectives of the Session

1. Advocate for cultural restitution as part of the broader landscape of social justice in Africa, drawing connections to land justice movements
2. Increase understanding of how different types of restitution (whether cultural or land) go beyond return/access/ownership, to address restoring dignity and wholistic community restoration grounded in African identity
3. Share perspectives on how lessons from cultural restitution can strengthen approaches to land justice
4. Identify actionable recommendations for governments, CSOs, and regional bodies on integrating restitution into land governance frameworks.

9:00am PS 13-A: THE 6th REGION: DIASPORA, LAND, AND INVESTMENTS

- Location: Conference Room 2

10:15am Objectives of the Session

1. Advocate for inclusive land governance policies that take into consideration the contribution of the African diaspora in sustainable development.
2. Identify opportunities for land-based investment that are of particular interest to Africans in the diaspora and the policy and legislative environments can be reformed to accelerate their uptake.
