

INFF

Integrated National Financing Frameworks

INFF experience in Tanzania

Presented by Dr. Charles Mwamwaja

Contents

- 1 Integrated National Financing Frameworks in Tanzania
- 2 Integrated National Financing Framework Status and way forward

1 Integrated National Financing Framework in Tanzania

Integrated National Financing Frameworks context in Tanzania

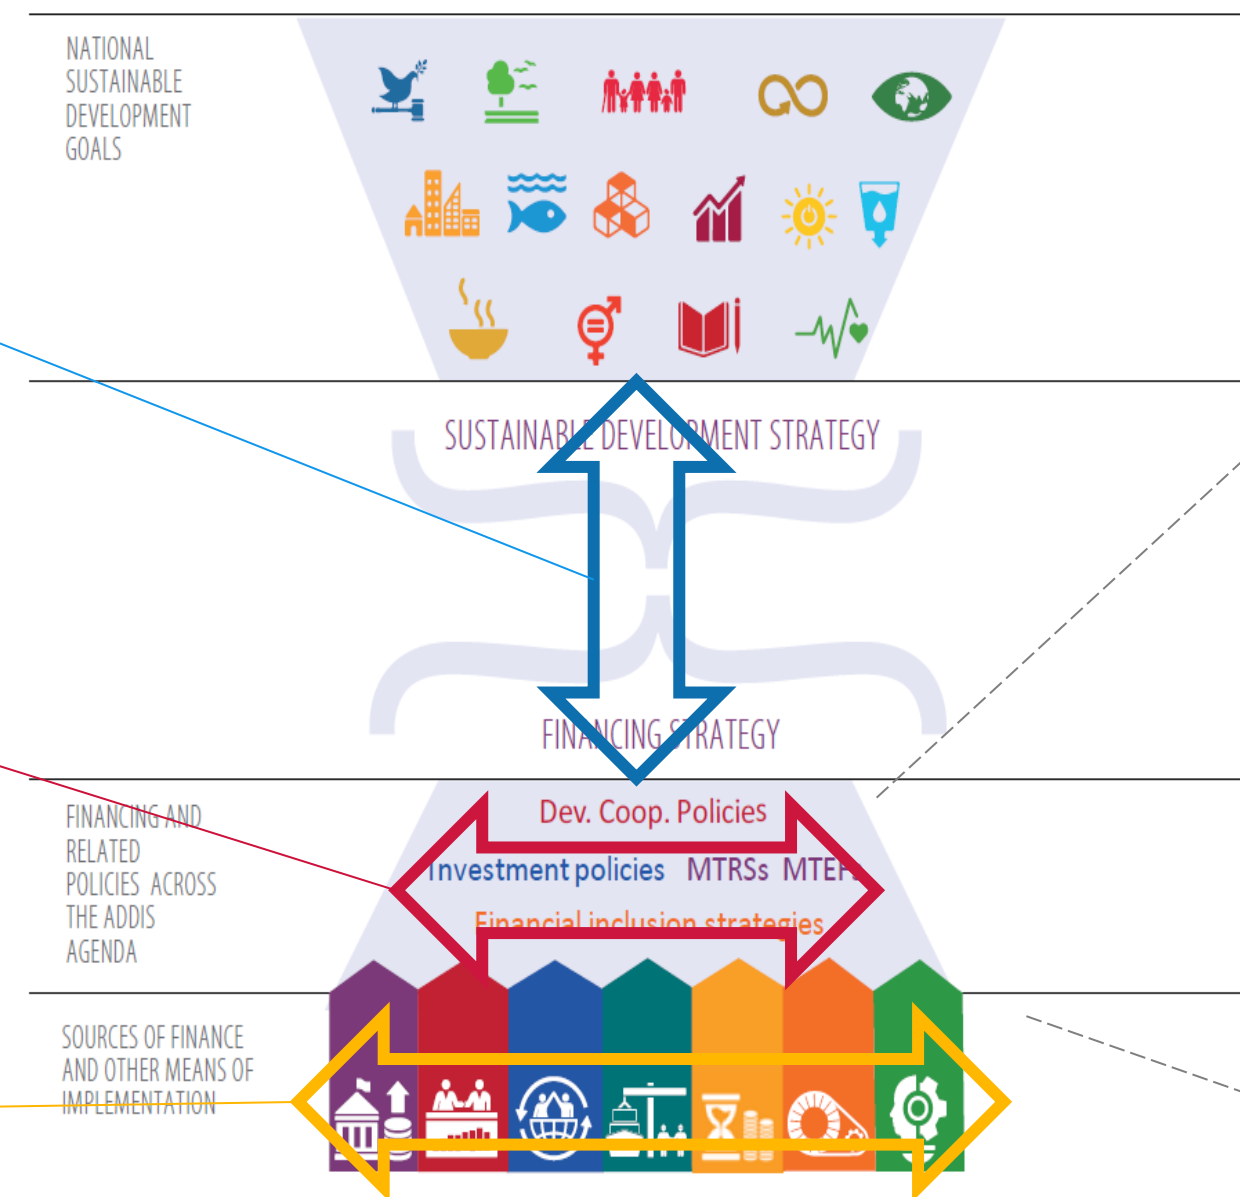

Objective of an INFF: strengthen financing of national sustainable development priorities

INTEGRATIONS:

Integrate plan with National Plans and – FYDP III, ZADEP

Integrate public and private finance policies -INFS

Assessment and Diagnostic – integrating partners

COMMON POLICY SPECTRUM IN PLACE:

- Revenue strategy
- Annual / medium term budget
- Debt management
- SOE management
- Development cooperation
- Philanthropy / NGO / FBO
- Diaspora engagement
- Investment promotion
- SME development
- Impact investment / social enterprise policy
- Financial inclusion
- Financial sector development

Public finance focus

Private finance focus

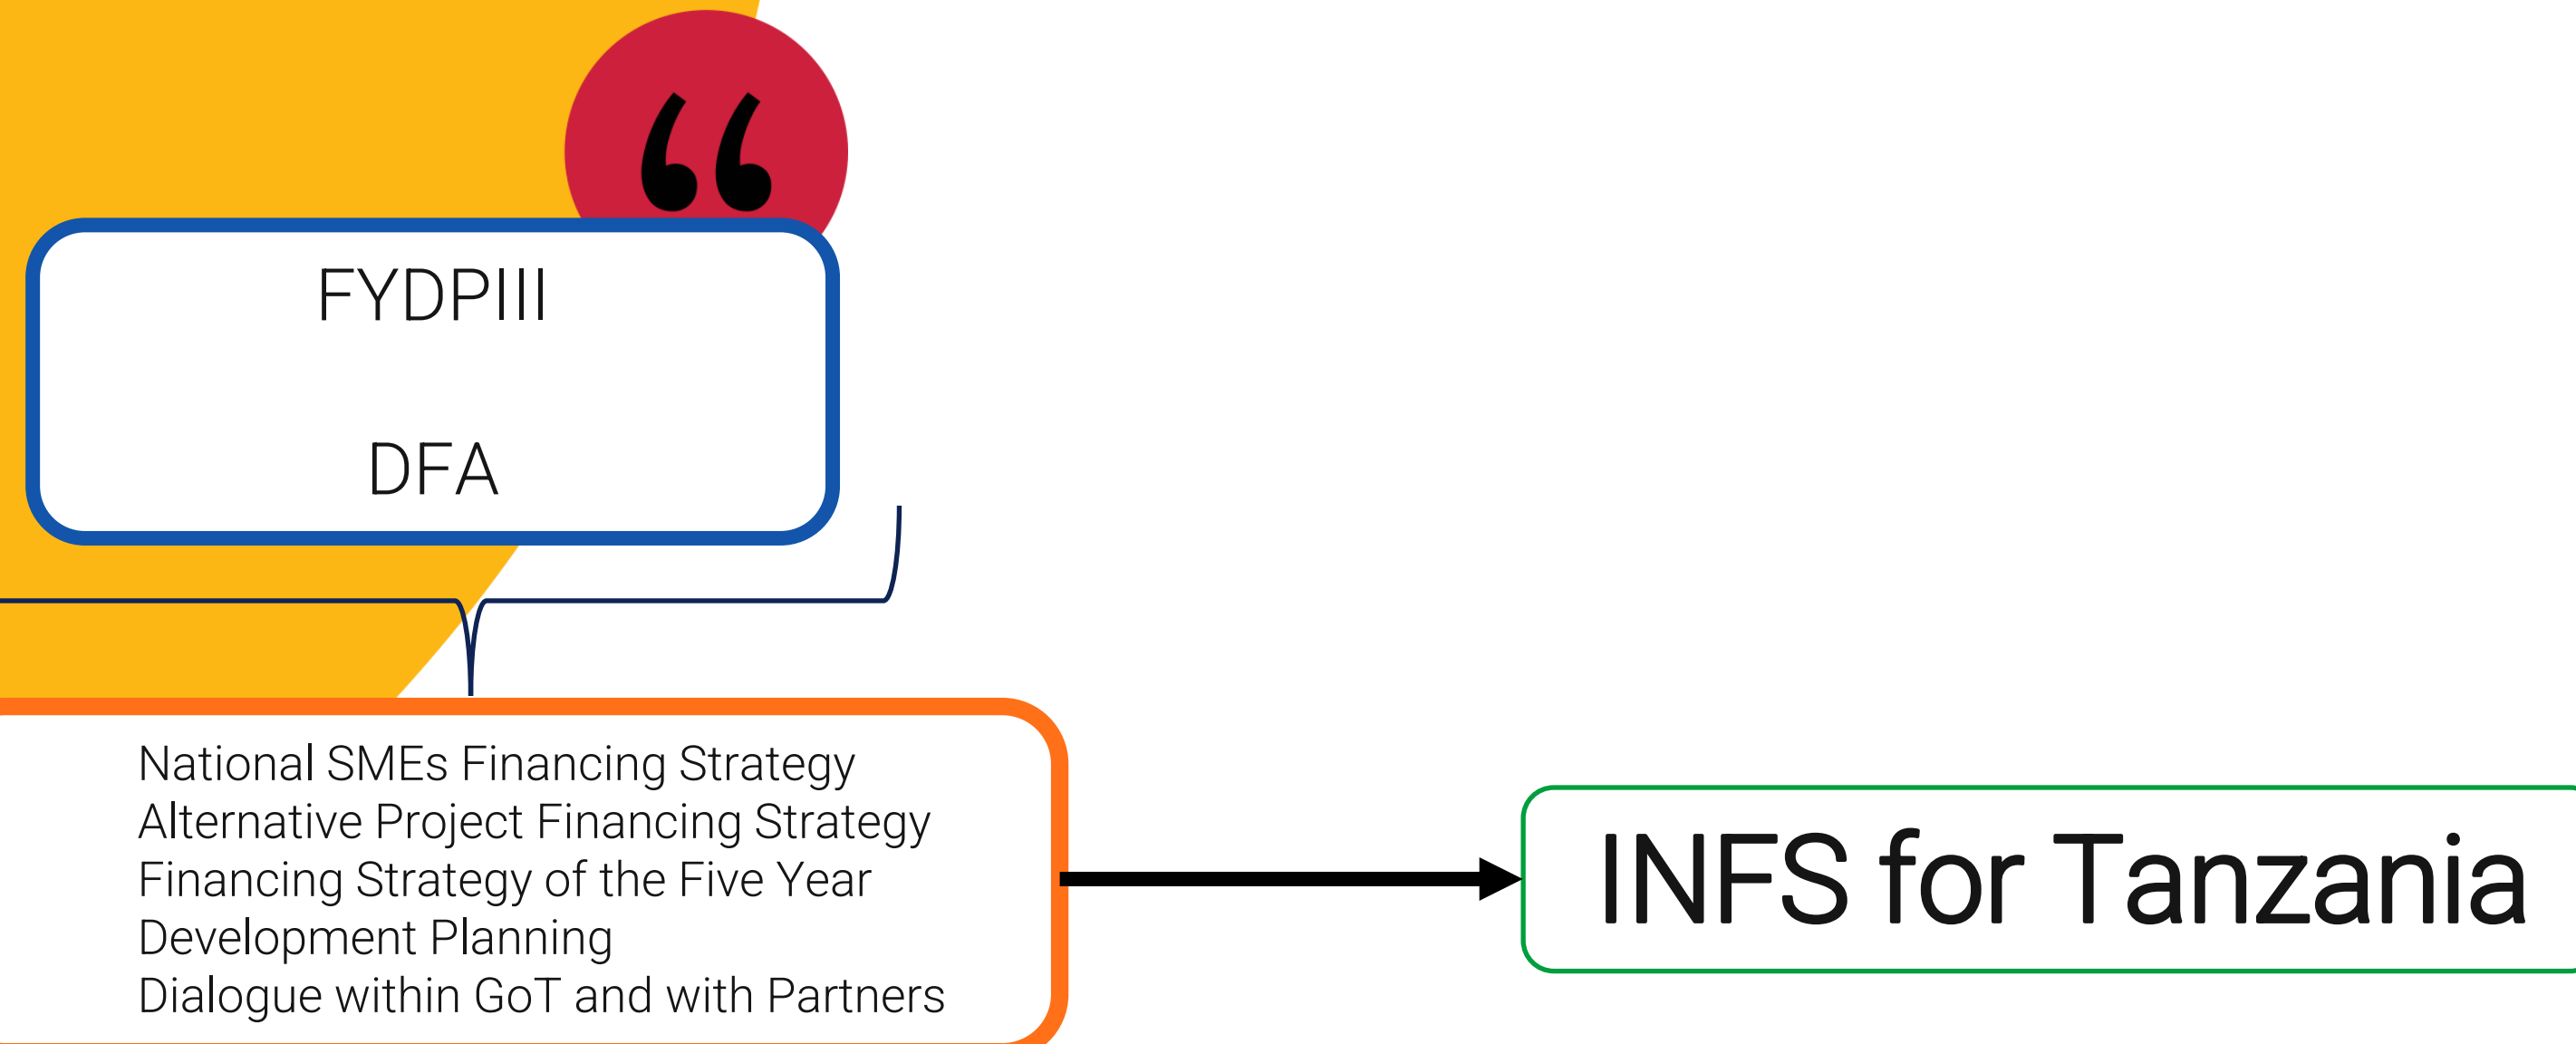

An INFF help Tanzania government implement national development priorities:

- Resource mobilisation
- Boost alignment to development priorities
- Address synergies / trade-offs
- Prioritise reforms

2 Integrated National Financing Framework Status and way forward

INFF Tanzania Process - General overview

Key principles observed

A. Country Led by Ministry of Finance and Planning

B. Aligned to National Planning cycle

C. Scope of the INFS: Brings together public policy tools across public and private finance

D. Consultative Multistakeholder development process

- Government Peer review mechanism
- UNDP
- Development partners (IMF, EU, WB, AFDB, UN-agencies, Bilateral missions)
- CSOs, NGOs
- Local and International Experts

Forward looking Financing reforms / measures, responsive to country priorities and needs

FINANCING STRATEGY

Prioritised, Sequenced set of
financing reforms (solutions and Transformative changes)

Short, medium and
longer term measures, building on Identification of
gap and opportunities

Changes in architecture

Changes in policy
and regulation

Changes in
instruments

Changes in business
process

RESOURCES
MOBILISED, LEVERAGED
AND ALIGNED

Thank you Very Much

Commissioner for financial sector Development Department – Tanzania Ministry of Finance and Planning
Dr. Charles Mwamwaja

Contacts: charles.mwamwaja@hazina.go.tz