ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Economic Report on Africa 2016 on Greening Africa's Industrialisation was prepared under the leadership of Carlos Lopes, UN Under Secretary General and Executive Secretary of the ECA, with the close involvement and guidance of Abdalla Hamdok, Deputy Executive Secretary and Chief Economist of the ECA.

The Report was conceptualised, supervised and jointly led by Adam Elhiraika, Director, Macroeconomic Policy Division, ECA and Fatima Denton, Director, Special Initiatives Division, ECA. The research and content team within ECA comprised Andrew Allieu, Bartholomew Armah, Charles Akong, Adrian Gauci, Diane Guerrier, Heini Suominen, Hopestone Chavula, Johnson Nkem, Linus Mofor, Louis Lubango, Mama Keita, Saurabh Sinha, Susannah Fisher, Yacouba Gnégne and Yesuf Mohammednur Awel. Johnson Nkem and Hopestone Chavula played an active role in leading the empirical research and enabling the writing process and overall production of the report.

The report benefited from substantive contributions of the following: Camilla Toulmin (Senior Fellow, International Institute for Environment and Development, UK) as lead consultant and content editor; Ralph Luken (UNIDO) as consultant on decoupling and cleaner production; Raphael Kaplinsky (University of Sussex, UK) as consultant on value chains analysis; and Belynda Petrie (One World) as consultant on scenarios analysis. Camilla Toulmin played a principal role in providing overall coherence, shaping the content and storyline of the report and working closely with the ECA team and consultants.

The report was significantly informed by primary data generated through field research and in-depth analyses, led by members of the report's content team at the ECA, in tracing the evolution of green industrialisation in Ethiopia (Abbi Kedir); Côte d'Ivoire (Yacouba Gnégne); Ghana (Linus Mofor); Kenya (Tessa Adamson and Susanna Fisher); Malawi (Johnson Nkem); Mauritius (Louis Lubango); Nigeria (Charles Akong); Rwanda (Susannah Fisher); Tunisia (Yacouba Gnégne) and South Africa (Andrew Allieu).

ECA would like to acknowledge the following people for their inputs to the report. They are Charles Akol, Tessa Adamson, Nassirou Ba, Benjamin Banda, Derrese Degefa, Ngone Diop, Adama Ekberg Coulibaly, George Kararach, Deniz Kellecioglu, Mamo Girma, Iris Macculi, El Helepi Medhat, Mongameli Mehlwana, William Muhawava, Maimouna Hama Natama, Guy Ranaivomanana, Gideon Rutaremwa, John Rwirihira, Semia Guermas Tapia, Edlam Abera Yemeru and Jack Jones Zulu.

Various people across ECA's divisions and sub-regional offices as well as the following external reviewers provided constructive comments and suggestions: Wassie Berhanu, Atlaw Alemu Addis Ababa University; Dr. Vicente Jose D.A. Costa Pinto de Andrade, Lusitania University of Angola; Dr. Sarah N. Ssewanyana, Economic Policy Research Centre, Uganda; Dr. Christopher W. Guta, Press Corporation, Malawi; Dr. Atewamba Calvin, United Nations University–Institute for Natural Resources in Africa; Dr. Desta Mebratu, United Nations Environment Programme, Nairobi; Dr. Theresa Moyo, University of Limpopo, South Africa; Mr. Michel Phan, Pioneer Food Cannery, Ghana; Dr. Lankoande Gountien, Researcher, Burkina Faso; Dr. Tadele Agaje Ferede, Addis Ababa University; Mr. Jean Bakole, United Nations Industrial Development Organization, Ethiopia; and Mr. Girma Balcha, Climate Change Forum, Ethiopia.

The production of the report would not have been possible without the contribution of the following: Collen Kelapile, Jimmy Ocitti, Demba Diarra, Charles Ndungu, Teshome Yohannes, Menkir Girma, Henok Legesse, Robel Tsegaye, Mercy Wambui, Agare Kassahun, Yetinayet Mengistu, Solomon Wedere, Bekele Demissie, Melkamu Gebre Ezigiabher of ECA; Bruce Ross-Larson and Joe Caponio of Communications Development Incorporated, editors; and Karen Knols, Tessa Schlechtriem, Carolina Rodriguez of Dilucidar Incorporated, infographic design consultants.
