Fourth session
Dakar, 2–4 May 2018

Provisional annotated agenda

1. Opening of the session

The opening of the fourth session of the Africa Regional Forum on Sustainable Development will be moderated by the Director of the Special Initiatives Division of the Economic Commission for Africa (ECA), Fatima Denton. The outgoing Chair of the Bureau of the Regional Forum, the Representative for Togo, will preside. Statements will be delivered by the following; the Executive Secretary of ECA, Vera Songwe, who will also speak on behalf of the United Nations partner agencies for the 2018 Regional Forum; the outgoing Chair of the Regional Forum; the United Nations Resident Coordinator in Senegal; a representative for the African Development Bank; and the Chairperson of the African Union Commission. His Excellency the President of the Republic of Senegal will deliver the opening statement.

2. High-level panel on Transformation towards sustainable and resilient societies: action, solution, and the role of technology

In reviewing progress, the main goal of the Regional Forum is to flag and move ahead with initiatives and solutions to achieve the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and the ambitions outlined in Agenda 2063. High-level policymakers will articulate their perspectives on tackling regional and national challenges, scaling up initiatives and solutions including good practices, and capitalizing on the region's comparative advantages to achieve the transformation towards sustainable and resilient societies in Africa. The panel comprises high-profile policymakers from different backgrounds who represent the sectors covered by the subthemes of the Regional Forum. Panel members will engage in an interactive panel discussion and highlight innovative approaches, solutions and opportunities that member States should harness to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals. Each panel member will speak for no more than seven minutes in order to ensure that time is available for contributions from the floor. Detailed guidelines for the panel will be provided.

The provisional list of panellists is as follows: (TBD).

3. Organizational matters

(a) Overview and Election of the Bureau

The outgoing Chair of the Bureau will conduct elections of the Bureau for the fourth session of the. The Chair will invite the secretariat to provide a brief over including the history and role of the forum before election of the bureau. The incoming Bureau will comprise five members – one Chair, three Vice-chairs and one Rapporteur – elected on the basis of equitable geographical representation. Following the elections, consultations among the heads of delegation will take place and the composition of the incoming Bureau for the fourth session of the Regional Forum will be announced. The newly elected Bureau members will be invited to assume their seats at the podium.

(b) Adoption of the agenda and programme of work

The Regional Forum will be invited to consider and adopt the agenda and programme of work, subject to such amendments as are deemed necessary.

4. Implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and Agenda 2063: support and progress at regional and subregional levels

(a) The focus of this item is the support for and progress on the implementation of the 2030 Agenda and Agenda 2063 at regional and subregional levels. Presentations by the secretariat will be followed by discussions on two topics:

(i) Overview of the progress achieved in implementing the 2030 Agenda and Agenda 2063 and further actions required to accelerate progress, with an emphasis on the Sustainable Development Goals to be discussed at the 2018 meeting of the high-level political forum on sustainable development;

(ii) Overview provided by representatives of ECA and the African Union Commission on support for the implementation of the 2030 Agenda and Agenda 2063;

(b) Before opening the floor for discussions, the chair will invite representatives from the five Subregions to contribute perspectives on support, implementation, follow-up and review of the 2030 Agenda and Agenda 2063.

5. Round table on peer learning, focusing on solutions, good practices and lessons learned in the implementation of the 2030 Agenda and Agenda 2063

The round table is designed to facilitate learning by show-casing solutions and good practices and exchanging experience and lessons learned, with a view to advancing implementation of the 2030 Agenda and Agenda 2063. The round table will be led by a panel comprising selected senior experts and policymakers from the governments of countries among those involved in the Voluntary National Review from 2016, 2017, and 2018, and other African countries that are front-runners in the implementation of Agenda 2063; major groups and the donor community will also have representatives on the panel. Each panel member will speak for no more than seven minutes in order to ensure that time is available for contributions from the floor. It is anticipated that the panellists will outline compelling solutions; share their views, experiences and lessons learned; and will identify actions and other measures to enhance implementation of the two agendas. Among the matters to be highlighted during the round table are the outcomes of various pre-session meetings (including the pre-event for Voluntary National Review and Agenda 2063 frontrunner countries), and the outcomes of other pre-meetings of major groups and stakeholders.

6. Parallel panel meetings on the subthemes of the session

(a) The aim of the parallel panel meetings is to conduct in-depth discussions on the selected thematic areas, with the aim of strengthening the most relevant key messages, agreeing on those that should be dropped, and identifying additional messages as necessary. Participants in the parallel panel meetings will have before them a report and proposed key messages on the respective thematic area. The thematic areas for discussion are the following:

- (i) Clean water and sanitation;
 - (ii) Affordable and clean energy;
 - (iii) Sustainable cities and communities;
 - (iv) Responsible consumption and production;
 - (v) Life on land;
 - (vi) Strengthening the means of implementation and partnership for sustainable development
- (b) Participation in the parallel panel meetings will be open to all participants of the Regional Forum. Participants will therefore be invited to join any of the six parallel panel meetings, which will each focus on one of the thematic areas listed above. The chairs of the panel meetings will be designated by the Chair of the Bureau. The panellists at each meeting will comprise representatives of selected countries, regional and subregional organizations and United Nations agencies. Before starting their discussions, each group will designate a rapporteur who will be entrusted with reporting back to the Regional Forum in plenary.
- (c) At each parallel meeting:
- (vii) The secretariat will give a short presentation of no more than five minutes highlighting the status of implementation, emerging challenges and opportunities and proposed key messages on the given thematic area;
 - (viii) A panel discussion will be conducted after the presentation. Each panel member will speak for no more than seven minutes in order to ensure that time is available for contributions from the floor;
 - (ix) A general discussion will follow, with a view to reaching agreement on key issues and an improved list of key messages on the thematic areas.
- (d) At the end of every panel meeting, each panel should submit a report on the issues discussed, policies and actions suggested, and revised key messages adopted by the panel for consideration by the plenary of the Forum.

7. Presentations and discussions of outcomes and proposed key messages, including policy recommendations emanating from the parallel panel meetings

Under this item, the rapporteurs of each parallel panel meeting will present to the plenary, in no more than five minutes, a short report of the panel discussions highlighting the conclusions and agreed set of key messages emanating from their discussions. Each group presentation will be followed by a brief discussion, with a view to improving the key messages.

8. Consideration and adoption of key messages

The Regional Forum will consider the key messages updated by the secretariat under the guidance of the chairs of the parallel panel meetings and will adopt the key messages as the collective input by the Africa region to the 2018 meeting of the high-level political forum on sustainable development.

9. Theme, dates and venue of the fifth session of the Africa Regional Forum on Sustainable Development in 2019

The secretariat will present proposals on the theme, dates and venue of the next session of the Africa Regional Forum on Sustainable Development for consideration by the participants. The Regional Forum will deliberate and seek to reach agreement on the proposals.

10. Other matters

Under this agenda item, the meeting may wish to consider any other matters that may be brought to its attention.

11. Closing of the session

The Chair of the Bureau of the fourth session of the Africa Regional Forum on Sustainable Development will summarize the main outcomes of the deliberations. Closing remarks by the Executive Secretary, ECA will follow. The Chair of the Bureau will then conclude proceedings and declare the fourth session closed.
