Registration

Participants are required to register and obtain identification badges prior to the opening of the meeting. There will be a documentation desk at the venue, outside the conference room where participants will receive an information package.

Language

The Conference working languages will be English, French and Arabic. Simultaneous translation will be available in these languages.

Local transportation

The organizers have arranged for a shuttle bus service for airport transfers. If you would like to use the bus provided by the organizers to travel from Casablanca airport or Marrakech airport to the CCDA-IV venue and back, you must to complete an online form to indicate arrival time. The form is provided at <http://www.climdev-africa.org/ccda4/localtransport>

Daily Subsistence Allowance (DSA)

DSA will be provided to sponsored participants in Marrakesh at the conference venue (exact place and time will be announced at the conference).

Health care

Participants should be aware that, in accordance with WHO directives, the Ministry of health of Morocco will require all participants to undergo screening for Ebola virus upon arrival at all airports. Participants should ensure that routine vaccinations are up to date, including hepatitis A, rabies and typhoid.

In case of accident or illness during the meeting, the participant must immediately inform a member of the Organizing Committee through the contact persons. Participants should ensure that they are adequately insured, either at their own expense or at the expense of the body that appointed them - against illness, accident, temporary disability, death and damage to third parties and that for the duration of the meeting. ECA does not assume any responsibility or liability for such risks.

Money

Participants should bring an adequate supply of hard currency or travellers-cheques. US$ and Euro are easily exchanged and US$ are accepted in most major hotels. You can change money and traveler checks at the airport upon arrival or at all major banks, bureau de change and some hotels.

There are ATM's throughout Morocco in all of the major Cities and most towns and also in the Conference venue. It is not possible to get foreign currency advances against a credit card. Credit cards are accepted at most of higher end hotels, restaurants and shops.

Currency restrictions

By law you are not allowed to import or export Moroccan Dirhams. Always keep the exchange receipt form of each transaction as it will be required when converting Dirhams back into US$ or Euros when leaving Morocco. A rule of thumb is not to exchange too much money at one time.

The exchange rates are as follows (for September 2014):

1 USD to 8.45 Dirham
1 Euro to 11.2 Dirham
Bank working Hours: 08h15-15h45

Climate

The temperature in Marrakech in October is between 30 ° C and 40 ° C.

Time zone

Morocco time zone is GMT+1

Electricity supply

Electricity supply in Morocco is 220-240 volts, 50 cycles AC accessible via 13-amp, two pin (European) socket + Neutral. An image of this socket type is included below.

Mobile phone service

Maroc Télécom (Jawal), Meditel (Medi Jahiz) and Inwi are the 3 Telecommunication Companies in Morocco which offer SIM cards with pre-charged airtime. The cost of a 3G SIM card is less than $3. Payments have to be made in Moroccan Dirhams. Participants will require their passport when purchasing a SIM card from authorized stores.

Morocco has roaming convention with many countries.

General Information on Marrakech

Marrakech is known as the “Red City” and is the most important former imperial city in Morocco’s history. The city is divided into two distinct parts: the Medina, which is the historical city, and the new European modern district called Gueliz or Ville Nouvelle. The Medina is full of intertwining narrow passageways and local shops full of character. In contrast, Gueliz plays host to modern restaurants, fast food chains and big brands.
