- Hôtel Président
- Hôtel des Parlementaires
For reservations, participants and sponsoring organizations are kindly requested to contact hotels directly by e-mail or telephone. Please send a copy of your reservation to the organisers to the following address: info@crmc3.org.

_N.B. Hotels room rates are being negotiated (Please re-visit the Information Note for updates)._

6. Transport

The host country will organise transport from Abidjan to Yamoussoukro and back.

For all Ministers, State protocol will be followed. Ministers will be welcomed through the VIP lounge at the Félix Houphouët-Boigny airport in Abidjan.

Transport to Yamoussoukro will be organized daily from Friday 6th February 2015 onwards as follows:

- 8:00 am : 1st departure
- 11:00 am : 2nd departure
- 3:00 pm: last departure of the day

All participants whose flights arrive after 2 pm will have to stay at the transit hotel to wait for the transport the following day. Buses will pick up participants from their transit hotels.

Similar arrangements will be made available for return from Yamoussoukro to Abidjan on Friday 13th February 2015:

- All buses will depart from Yamoussoukro at 3:00 pm

Shuttles are also arranged to transport participants between hotels and the conference centre (Fondation FHB). A detailed schedule elaborating these arrangements will be provided on arrival at the hotel.

For more information please visit the conference website at www.crmc3.org.

7. Security

Security will be assured by the National Police of Côte d'Ivoire.

8. Formalities on arrival

All passengers arriving in Côte d'Ivoire must have a valid passport for at least 30 days after the departure date. The passport must also have at least one blank page at the time of arrival. Participants are advised to obtain visa from the Côte d'Ivoire embassies in their countries. However arrangements have also been made to provide visas to participants at the Abidjan airport upon arrival. In this respect, all participants duly registered to the conference will receive a letter of invitation that must be presented on arrival. The fee for visa is twenty thousand (20,000) francs CFA, equivalent of approximately thirty-five (35) EUR or forty-five (45) USD.

9. Health regulations

As per international health regulations, all passengers entering Cote d’Ivoire must present a valid yellow fever vaccination certificate.

Health personnel will be available at the airport for passengers who fail to present a valid vaccination card. Vaccinations can be given at the airport against a fee of ten thousand (10,000) francs CFA, equivalent of approximately seventeen (17) EUR or twenty-two (22) USD.

Specific measures against Ebola virus are in place at the airport of Abidjan. All arriving passengers must go through health procedures: filling in the health form, temperature check and hand washing.

NB : A national toll free number is available for all questions related to Ebola at 143.

Recommendation: Participants are advised to have a valid vaccination against meningitis due to the harmattan that prevails during the time of the conference.

10. Health services

Participants are advised to have a travel insurance that covers costs related to public and private health care services in Cote d’Ivoire.

A medical team will be available at the conference centre for first aid and emergency care in case of an emergency that cannot be treated by the team, patients will be directed at the nearest health centre/hospital.

All medical care requiring a prescription, examinations or hospitalisation will be at the cost of the person concerned.

In the unlikely event of a health related evacuation abroad, personal insurance regulations will apply.

Health centres and hospitals in Abidjan and Yamoussoukro are equipped to provide effective medical care for conference participants.

11. Telephone and internet access

Principal landline and mobile services operators (ORANGE, MTN, MOOV) provide a network for Abidjan and Yamoussoukro. They also provide access to internet, GPRS and/or 3G.
12. General information

12.1 Banks and currency

Banks are open from 8:00 to 15:30 from Monday to Friday and from 9:00 to 12:00 on Saturdays. Most banks have ATMs that accept Visa, Mastercard and GIM-UEMOA. Hotel President and Hotel des Parlementaires in Yamoussoukro also have ATMs available for conference participants. Exchange offices can be found at banks and at the airport for travelers’ cheques and foreign currency exchange.

Local currency in Cote d’Ivoire is West African franc (FCFA):

- 1 EUR = 655,957 FCFA
- 1 USD = approximately 500FCFA

12.2 Climate

In February, average temperature in Cote d’Ivoire varies between 22°C and 33°C in Yamoussoukro, the place of the conference.
